

LEWIS S. MILLS HIGH SCHOOL

26 Lyon Road

Burlington, Connecticut 06013

(860) 673-0423 ~ Fax (860) 673-9128

Karissa L. Niehoff, Principal
David Keepin, Dean of Students

Pamela Lazaroski, Assistant Principal

Class of 2012 Cookbook Project

Dear Class of 2012 Parents and staff,

The Class of 2012 has embarked on a major fundraising Cookbook Project for 2009 in conjunction with Gateway Publishing Ltd., but we need your help! We are asking our parents and friends to submit their favorite recipes, which will be featured in our cookbook. The cut-off date for submitting recipes is May 1, 2009. If every freshman brought in one family favorite, we will have well over 200 recipes and be on our way to publishing a successful cookbook.

Here is how to submit your recipes:

TO DO:

Word process your recipe carefully, you are the only person who has the original

- Check the accuracy of the recipe title.
- Check the spelling of contributor's name.
- Check the spelling of your ingredient list.
- Check the spelling and grammar of the methods you use.
- Check to ensure capital letters are on trademark names such as "Cool Whip."

Major recipe changes after your cookbook has been formatted will delay the printing of our cookbook and we can't afford to incur extra costs, so help us with accuracy.

Common Cookbook Abbreviations:

Teaspoon/s = tsp. Tablespoon/s = tbsp. Cup/s = c. Ounce/s = oz. Quart/s = qt. Pound/s = lb. Package/s = pkg. Large = lg. Medium = med. Small = sm.

Liter/s = L. Milliliter/s = ml Kilogram/s = kg Gram/s = g

TO SUBMIT:

- Send your word-processed recipe back to school with your son or daughter, c/o Mr. Vecchitto, Class of 2012 Advisor; or
- E-mail your recipe to vecchittoj@region10ct.org.

If you have more than one recipe to share, please submit them. Cookbooks will go on sale next fall for delivery by the holidays...if we can gather enough recipes. Also, if you have a good title for the cookbook, let us know. Your idea could be featured. Come on cooks! Share your fare. Help the Class of 2012 with this delicious fundraiser.

Thank you.

Cordially,

Mr. John Vecchitto
Class of 2012 Advisor

Regional School District No. 10
Burlington ~ Harwinton