

Administration

Monitoring of Product and Process Goals

The Board of Education directs the superintendent of schools in cooperation with the school staff, parents, and any other interested persons or groups to, in a timely fashion, establish and maintain a comprehensive plan for monitoring the progress of the schools in achieving stated goals in regard to curriculum, school environment, and school operations.

Policy adopted: May 14, 1990
Policy reviewed: July 1, 2009