

Business and Non-Instructional Operations

Transportation for Vocational Education

Pursuant to Section 10-97, the Board of Education will pay reasonable and necessary transportation costs for any student who attends a state approved vocational school. Reasonable is determined by an amount less than or equal to the functional level defined under section 10-262f.

Legal Reference: Connecticut General Statutes
 10-97 Transportation to Vocational Schools
 10-262f – Definitions

Policy adopted: September 1980
Policy revised: January 2002
Policy reviewed: July 1, 2009