

Vocational Opportunities/Equity Coordinators Contact Information Annual Public Notification Requirement

Regional School District 10 offers the following programs regardless of race, color, sex, national origin, sexual orientation or disability. The programs offered are:

Business & Finance Technology (Advanced Computer Applications, Advanced Graphic Design, Business Organization/Management, Career Readiness, Computer Applications, E-Portfolio, Graphic Design, International Business, Personal Finance, Principles of Accounting I, II, Web Design and Work Experience Course) Family & Consumer Sciences (Child Development I, II and Culinary Arts I, II, III) Technology Education (Advanced Video Production, Architectural Drafting, Construction and Renovation, Digital Photography, Engineering Drafting, Game Design, Introduction to Transportation and Energy, Manufacturing and Production, Materials and Processes I, II, Multimedia Communications, Robotics, Electronics, and Fluid Power, Technical Drafting, Transportation Systems, Video Production).

Unless specified, all programs are available for all students. Admission criteria are listed in the Lewis S. Mills Program of Studies, on the Lewis S. Mills website or available by contacting Cheri Burke.

Questions regarding civil rights compliance may be directed to the Title IX Coordinator, Cheri Burke, Director of Student Learning at 860-673-2538 or burkec@region10ct.org or Director of Student Support Services and 504 Coordinator and Title II Coordinator Linda Carabis at 860-673-6195 or carabisl@region10ct.org.